

Inclement Weather Notice – Atascosa County Court at Law

Settings for Monday, January 26

Due to the possibility of inclement weather, parties with cases currently set in the Atascosa County Court at Law for Monday, January 26 are advised to monitor conditions closely.

The Court will update its outgoing voicemail message with any changes to court operations or scheduled settings. All parties, attorneys, and witnesses should call the Court at 830-769-4232 on the morning of January 26 to check the recorded message for current information.

If weather conditions impede a party's ability to attend court or affect their anticipated arrival time, the party must leave a voicemail message with the Court explaining the circumstances.

If a party cannot appear or anticipates appearing late, that party is also required to notify all other parties in the case of the inability to appear or delayed arrival.

Thank you for your attention and cooperation.

Judge Bob Brendel
